Carolyn,
 To a real sweet girl
 who was always near by when I needed a friend. I think of me whenever you hear the bell ring in those bright and cheerful halls of Brookville.
 Have a hell your Senior year.

Carolyn,
 To one of the sweetest and most fun girls in the senior class. Never forget all the funtastic times we've had through the years and here's hoping that this is the craziest, wildest, greatest and most fun year of them all. Always keep your great personality and your smile and you'll be a great success. Best of luck in all you do.
 Love ya,
 Susan

Hoop Highlights

The Blue Devils got off to a slow start at the beginning of the season. But steady improvement pushed the inexperienced team onward as they came up with some exciting wins. West Milton, the team many particularly wanted to beat, was given a solid fourteen point defeat. In the tournament games Brookville came up with two wins to qualify for the semi-finals. Brookville lost to Germantown in that round, ending a season full of surprises.

"Belvedere"

Lynn Belvedere is a self-proclaimed genius. Although he was hired as a babysitter for Mark and Bobby King, he soon has the entire family working for him. "Belvedere" is both humorous and suspenseful and was excellently presented by the Class of 68.

"I think we had better be going!"

The crowning point of the 1967 Basketball season was the Hoopster's Holiday dance. Pam Emans and Don Hartman were chosen by the basketball team to reign as Queen and King at the annual affair with Judy Ernst, Cheryl Garlitz, Dan Price, and Don Kring as attendants.

The gala affair was attended by many students anxious to honor the 1967 Blue Devil Basketball team. The dance, held on February 10, was charmingly decorated with cupids and hearts to carry out the "Shootin Cupid" theme. All who attended agreed that the affair was indeed a success.

This commencement marks for many of us the beginning of life on our own. We will all endeavor to make our dreams of today the realities of tomorrow. It is the hope of the staff of this your 1967 SCROLL that in the years to come that this annual will serve to refresh your memories of Brookville High School and the many friends you made while attending school. If the book serves this purpose, our efforts in putting it together have been worthwhile.

The staff wishes to thank all those who have had a part in helping us with the publication of the 1967 SCROLL.
